The Small-Cap Opportunities Composite has been examined for the periods September 15, 1996 through December 31, 2016. The verification and performance examination reports are available upon request.
- II. OAM is an independent investment management firm registered under the Investment Advisor Act of 1940, founded in 1989, that invests in high growth companies around the world. - III. The following standards describe performance presented herein:
- The Small-Cap Opportunities Composite was created in September 1996. The reporting currency is U.S. Dollar. Policies for valuing portfolios, calculating performance, and preparing compliant presentations are available upon request.
  - Gross performance is computed before deducting advisory fees. Generally, the advisory fees for separate accounts are 0.90% on the first $25 million, 0.85% on the next $50 million, 0.80% on the next $75 million, 0.75% on the next $100 million. Except for an account that was in the composite for the period April 2015 through July 2016 and had a performance based fee arrangement. Actual fees are used in the net return calculation.
  - The composite returns disclosed were derived solely from the performance of a registered open-end investment company for the period 2008-2014.
  - The Small-Cap Opportunities Composite includes all fully discretionary accounts in excess of $2.5 million invested in the Small-Cap Opportunities strategy, which primarily invests in the securities of domestic companies with a market capitalization of less than $5 billion at the time of investment. Effective January 1, 2013 the equity segment was increased to 90% from 70%.
- IV. The standard deviation of portfolio returns have not been presented as the composite consisted of five or less accounts since inception. For accounts managed all months in the presentation year, the asset-weighted standard deviation of account returns within the composite is presented as a measure of internal dispersion. The three-year annualized ex-post standard deviation measures the variability of the composite and the benchmark returns over the preceding 36-month period. The annualized standard deviation is not presented for 2007 through 2010 because it was not required for periods prior to 2011.
- V. Consultants and investors supplied with these performance results are advised to use this data in accordance with guidelines issued by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission. Past performance is no guarantee of future results. The performance presented is inclusive of commissions and transaction costs and assumes reinvestment of any dividends, capital gains, or other earnings. The client's return will be reduced by the advisory fees and other expenses it may incur in the management of its account. The investment advisory fees are described in Part II of the Form ADV. The advisory fee, compounded over a period of years, will have an adverse effect on the value of the client's portfolio.
- VI. The benchmark for this composite is the Russell 2000 Growth Index. The Russell 2000 Growth Index measures the performance of those Russell 2000 companies with higher price-to-book ratios and higher forecasted earnings growth rates. The Russell 2000 Index measures the performance of 2000 companies with small-market capitalizations. This index is unmanaged and is not available for investment. Benchmark returns are not covered by the report of independent verifiers.
