

Use this IRA application to open a traditional, SEP, OR Roth IRA.

IMPORTANT: To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money-laundering activities, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. When you open an account, you will be asked for your name, date of birth (for a natural person), your residential address or principal place of business, and mailing address, if different, as well as your Social Security Number or Taxpayer Identification Number. Additional information is required for corporations, partnerships, and other entities. Applications without such information will not be considered in good order. The Fund reserves the right to deny an application if it is not in good order. Please note that the value of your account may be transferred to the appropriate state if no activity occurs in the account within the time period specified by state law.

6. SPOUSAL CONSENT

Complete this section only if you, the IRA owner, have your legal residence in a community or marital property state and you wish to name a beneficiary other than or in addition to your spouse as primary beneficiary. This section may have important tax consequences to you and your spouse, so please consult with a competent advisor prior to completing. If you are not currently married and you marry in the future, you must complete a new beneficiary designation that includes the spousal consent provisions. If this is an inherited IRA, seek competent legal/tax advice to see if spousal consent is required.

Consent of Spouse

By signing below, I acknowledge that I am the spouse of the IRA owner and agree with and consent to my spouse's designation of a primary beneficiary other than, or in addition to, me. I have been advised to consult a competent advisor, and I assume all responsibility regarding this consent. The custodian has not provided me any legal or tax advice.

Withholding election is not necessary for Roth accounts.	A population of measury, meaning nevenue service
NOTICE: The distributions you receive from your IRA are subject to federal income tax withholding unless you waive withholding. You may waive withholding on your IRA distribution by returning a signed and dated IRS Form W-4P, Withholding Certificate for Pension or Annuity Payments, or substitute Form W-4P to the custodian. Withholding will apply to the total amount of the distribution, whether taxable or not. If you waive withholding on your IRA distribution, or if you do not have enough federal income tax withheld from your IRA distribution, you may be responsible for payment of estimated tax. You may incur penalties under the estimated tax rules if your withholding and estimated tax payments are not sufficient. You are responsible for determining and paying all federal, and if applicable, state and local taxes on distributions from all IRAs you own. If you do not waive withholding or elect an alternative withholding amount, 10% will be withheld from your nonperiodic IRA distribution. Your election is valid until you revoke it. You may change your withholding election by completing another Form W-4P or substitute. If you are a non-resident alien, you may not use Form W-4P to withhold income tax or to waive withholding by indicating your election below, 10% will be withheld from your IRA distribution. Election: Unless you indicate a different withholding amount below or you waive withholding by indicating your election below, 10% will be withheld from your IRA distribution. I do not want federal income tax withheld from my distribution from this account. I want federal income tax of 10% withheld from my distribution from this account. We want federal income tax of 10% withheld from my distribution from this account.
Unless you waive state taxes below, state taxes will also be withheld if, at the time of your distribution, your address is within one of the mandatory withholding states.
☐ I do not want state income tax withheld from my distribution from this account.
Please refer to the list of mandatory state withholding rates included on the Tax Withholding Information Addendum. To obtain a copy of the addendum, please visit the Fund's website or contact a Shareholder Services representative at 800-245-7311. You may change your state withholding election on your IRA distribution by submitting the change in writing to the custodian. Please contact a tax professional regarding the possible tax implications prior to making a redemption request.
